

LANGLEY ADVANCE TIMES

Firehall Arts Centre presents Talking Sex on Sundays, a new play running Feb. 14 to March 8. (Firehall Theatre/Special to the Langley Advance Times)

Risque play, Talking Sex on Sunday, features a spicy party and a Langley actress

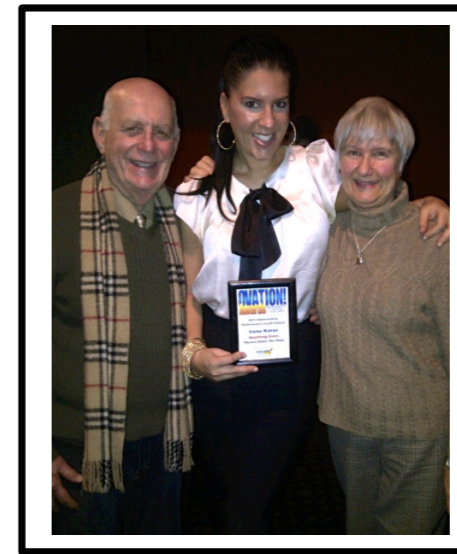

Irene Karas Loeper stars in the production, which runs Feb. 14 to March 8 at Firehall Arts Centre

RYAN UYTDEWILLIGEN / Jan. 30, 2020 4:00 p.m. / ENTERTAINMENT

On the first Sunday of every month, Margot and her lady pals always host a theme party. What happens when Margot decides to kick it up a notch by having a sex toy party?

Irene was interviewed for the
Langley Advance Times,
click here for the article!

Irene was awarded the “Outstanding Lead Actress” Ovation Award for her performance as Reno Sweeny in the musical “Anything Goes”

Irene was nominated for the “Best Supporting Actress” Ovation Award for her performance as Miss. Madelaine True in the musical “The Wild Party”.

Irene was nominated for the “Best Supporting Actress” Ovation Award for her performance as Mrs. Meers in the musical “Thoroughly Modern Millie”.

Irene was nominated for the “Best Supporting Actress” Jessie Richardson Award for her performance as Mrs. Meers in the musical “Thoroughly Modern Millie”.

